

A decorative horizontal line with a repeating diamond pattern. The line is composed of three diamond shapes. Each diamond is formed by two intersecting lines that create a central diamond shape. The top and bottom points of the diamonds are aligned with the horizontal line, while the left and right points extend outwards. The text 'THOUSAND' is centered within the first diamond, 'WAYNE ROBINSON' is centered within the second diamond, and 'PLATEAUS' is centered within the third diamond.
